Ed Sturgis Is putting up a very showy sign in front of his Bridge street store, Ei's energy is something wonderful.

Busines was Dull In East Waco yesterday. Mor cotton and hides have been received than could pos-sib'y be shipped. Hill county planters were down yesterday, as well as 'a right amart sprinkling" of Bonqueites Chirography.

See notice of Chirography, or the new and beautiful art of Crayon Drawing, in another column.

Gentlemen are registered at the McClellan House:

Capt. C. R. Cornelius, Clinton, La .: Dr. M. H. Stiner, Augusta, Ga.; J. R. Berry, Galveston; John A. Hester, Marlin, and Powhatan Lockett, Marion, Ala

Mesers. Curtis & Brown. We call attention to the advertisement of this firm, in to-day's paper. We are giad to note the fact that our friend, Mr C. N. Curtis, has associated with him a clever, genial gentleman from the Old Dominion, in his business. We can cordially commend the new firm to our friends, both is town and country.

In large quantities was received and shipped yesterday. The wool interests of this c'ty are i icreasing every day. We hope to see much more attentio : paid in the future to wool growing, than has been done in the There is no sound reason why this should not be the first wool market in the State.

Business is increasing very rapidly, and no wonder. Fred is all right himself, an i then, he deals in the pure stuff, and has it dispensed by attentive and capable bar tenders. If you want a smoke to drown dull care, Fred. has a cigar whose fragrance will transport your drawsy imagination beyond the fabled leathean waters, in half the time old Charen would do the job Try 'em and see.

Home manufacture, especially when it is chesper and better.

We had the pleasure, yesterday of meeting Mr Alonzo T. Logan, of Austin. A shake of Longie's hand brought back to memory "the days when we were hard up, just twenty years ago," and together traveled life's rugged path. We extend the hospitalities of the EXAMINER office to Mr. L., and hope his stay in Waco may be pleasant and profitable.

Mr. Thomas Grissett, an old Corvelle neighbor and friend of sure called yesterday; he says the farmers of that county will plant a big crop the coming seasos

We are glad to welcome to our city. Mr. Powhatan Lockett, formerly of Marion Alubams. Mr. Lockett is an able lawyer and we welcome him warmly to Texas, and our busy I ttle city.

We acknowledge the courtesy of a call from Mr. J. M. Green of Station Creek, Coryelle county.
